Instructions:

Please use the following lesson to help prepare your students for a more meaningful and interactive educational experience.

Subject: Family and Consumer Sciences and Technology

Lesson Title: Careers in the NFL

Goals/Objectives:

- Students will:
 - Identify careers in the NFL and careers at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
 - Demonstrate the education needed to position themselves for these careers.
 - Conduct an exploratory interview to get an insider’s view of a career in football.
 - Investigate career opportunities that reflect their interests, abilities, and personality.
 - Utilize various sources of career information.
 - Get a behind the scenes look at careers with the San Francisco 49ers by viewing.

National Standards Met:

- Family and Consumer Sciences: 1-Career, Community, and Family Connections
- Technology: 1-Empowered Learner; 2-Digital Citizenship; 3-Knowledge Constructor

Methods/Procedures:

Prior to Program

- Have students complete the following activities (pages 5-10):
 - Careers in the NFL from A to Z
 - Football Careers Scramble
 - Football Careers Matching
- Discuss with students additional NFL related careers.
- Have students conduct more in-depth research on careers identified.
- Have students compile a list of questions to be asked during the Careers in the NFL program.

During the Program

- Students will learn about the Mission/Vision/Values of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- Students will discuss the wide variety of careers in and around the NFL.
- Instructions for the Teacher:
 - Have students complete the “Careers in the NFL Summary Sheet” (pages 11-12). Students will be able to use this information during their post-program activity.
 - For students on a field trip to the Pro Football Hall of Fame have them:
 - View the “Careers in the NFL” presentation, presented by the Hall of Fame’s Youth and Education Staff.
 - Complete the age appropriate questionnaire booklet

After the Program

- Discuss with students the probability of becoming an NFL football player. According to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA.org):
 - Only 0.02% of the high school football players will make an NFL roster. Hint – divided the number of NFL drafts picks by the total number of high school football players.
https://ncaaorg.s3.amazonaws.com/research/pro_beyond/2020RES_ProbabilityBeyondHSFiguresMethod.pdf
- Discuss with students the following statistic related to an NFL players careers according to the Houston Chronicle:
 - Average NFL career length is 2.5 years: <https://work.chron.com/long-average-career-nfl-player-12643.html>
- Discuss with the students that resources are available in the NFL to help players transition to a second career or to further their education:
 - Through peer-to-peer engagement and direct outreach, PE’s innovative programs and services assist players and provide them with the resources necessary to make the most of their lives on the field and away from the game: <https://operations.nfl.com/the-players/nfl-player-engagement/>
- Have students review the website: <http://footballjobs.teamworkonline.com/teamwork/jobs/default.cfm> to learn about the variety of position openings available in the NFL. Tell them to take notes from this site to learn more what education background, skills, and tools are needed to obtain one of these highly sought-after positions.
- Students can learn more about Sport Management and can view the colleges/universities around the globe that offer this degree as an undergraduate/graduate/doctoral. Have students review the website: <https://www.cosmaweb.org/>
- Invite people to class who are in or retired from careers related to football (i.e. sportswriter, radio or TV broadcaster, coach, advertising agency, artist, player, retailer, sports statistician, referee, etc). Brainstorm a list of questions to ask including how they began their careers, what training, education, and qualifications they needed, and any personal interest stories.
- In pairs or small groups, have students choose one of the careers they have learned about and write a one-page narrative of a typical workday during the season for that career.
- Have students complete the “Career Future” activity (pages 13-14). This will allow the students to choose and further explore a career that interests them. Students can use some of the websites provided to assist with their research.
- Have students interview a person (in person or via phone/email) who works in the area the students have chosen.
- Have each student develop a resume that could be used to apply for the career in which he/she is interested in the “Career Future” activity (pages 13-14).

- Have each student create a collage to illustrate the career in which he/she is interested in the “Career Future” activity (pages 13-14). Make a class scrapbook of dream careers.

Materials:

- Career worksheets (pages 5-14)
- Internet access to career/job/vocation/college sites such as:
 - <http://www.nfl.com/careers/about>
 - <http://footballjobs.teamworkonline.com/teamwork/jobs/default.cfm>
