BRETT FAVRE, CLASS OF 2016

- Hall of Fame Values -

HONOR THE HEROES OF THE GAME - PRESERVE ITS HISTORY

THE NFL'S FIRST CENTURY: 1st FLOOR

1. What team won the very first NFL Championship back in 1920?

Throughout your tour of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, you will see five murals of the Hall of Fame Values – Commitment, Integrity, Courage, Respect and Excellence. These five values not only make you a Hall of Famer on the field, but make you a Hall of Famer in everyday life!

CLASS OF 2021

RESPECT – “RESPECT is earned by giving it to others stronger, weaker or different than ourselves”

RESPECT is not only an important value on the field, but an important value that people use in their everyday lives. Whether you are a Hall of Famer like Barry Sanders or a high school math teacher, you need have to RESPECT for fellow athletes, employees, students, peers and teammates.

24. One person players and all athletes have to RESPECT is the Official. Officials oversee the game, making sure players follow the rules. Many officials in the NFL were once players at one point in their career. Which officials have the most combined years of experience between playing and officiating?

25. The members of the Class of 2021 were some of the best to ever play, scout and coach to the game of football. Name all eight members of the Class of 2021.

26. Which two schools became the 1st Black Colleges to play a game against each other?

LAMAR HUNT SUPER BOWL GALLERY

COMMITMENT – “ALL in ALL the time”

The Super Bowl. The Big Game. The NFL Season is a grind for each and every team, showing how important COMMITMENT is to each player and team. Stars like Joe Namath, Lynn Swann (1981 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award Winner) and Russell Wilson have all shined in the NFL's Biggest Game and each of them were COMMITTED to helping their team become champions.

21. Len Dawson, the 1973 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award winner, lost the first Super Bowl he played in, but he stayed COMMITTED to his team, helping win the second Super Bowl he played in. Which two Super Bowls did Dawson play in?

22. COMMITMENT to playing as a team often leads to great success. The Chicago Bears displayed this by winning Super Bowl XX over the New England Patriots by this score. This “Shufflin’ Team” even recorded a song during their 15-1 season. What was the title of the song?

23. There are many times in Super Bowl History where one team is heavily favored. This was the case during Super Bowl XLII where the New England Patriots were favorited to win. The New York Giants upset the Patriots thanks to Quarterback Eli Manning and the EXCELLENT “Helmet Catch” made by who? (Hint: His helmet is on display)

THE NFL'S FIRST CENTURY: 1st FLOOR

INTEGRITY – “Doing RIGHT even when hard”

Since the birth of Pro Football in 1892, there have been Pro Football players who have been shown INTEGRITY on and off the field. In the 1940s, the NFL lost many of their players to World War II. These men left to go fight for their country – one of the highest levels of honor and displays of INTEGRITY somebody can show.

2. Due to World War II, many players left their respective teams to go fight for their country. In 1943, which team had to cancel its season? Which two teams combined in order to play in 1943?

3. It takes a high level of INTEGRITY and great morals to lead a league and the Game of Pro Football. Name the three Presidents/Commissioners who have led the Game of Pro Football during the respective years listed:

1921-1939: _____

1946-1959: _____

1989-2006: _____

4. This award is given to a current NFL Player and recognizes him for his EXCELLENCE on and off the field. It is named after this Hall of Fame Running Back, who in 1984 passed Jim Brown as the Game's All-Time leading rusher.

COURAGE – "CHARACTER and PERSEVERANCE over fear and adversity"

Being able to do something that people thought you couldn't do or that you were scared to do has driven athletes to be the best. From the first game in Pro Football to Hall of Famers, all have thrived when faced with adversity – had COURAGE to break down barriers.

5. It took COURAGE for the Pioneers of the Game to start the NFL back in 1920. What date was the first game between two NFL Teams played and who were the two teams that played in that game?

&

6. Who was the first African-American Referee to be the Head Official in a Super Bowl?

7. Name one of the three African-American Quarter-backs listed under "Pro Football's Modern Era"

8. Whose Browns contract is on display, making him one of the four African-Americans Pioneers to re-integrate Pro Football, ending a thirteen-year color barrier?

9. Football is a sport that families enjoy together, & the Manning family is no different. Many have heard of Peyton & Eli Manning, but some do not know their MVP dad. What is his name & what team did he play for?

HALL OF FAME GALLERY

EXCELLENCE – "ALWAYS being the BEST you can be"

This Gallery is where all of the Hall of Famers are honored with their Bronze Bust. Currently in the Gallery there are 354 Bronze Busts, signifying that 354 individuals are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. To put that in perspective, there have been over 300 million people who have played the game of football, 5 million who have played in college and only 29,000 people to be paid to either play, coach, officiate or administer to the Game of Pro Football. All 354 individuals exemplified EXCELLENCE throughout their career.

10. Each person inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame has shown EXCELLENCE throughout his entire career. When these individuals are inducted, they receive three Iconic Symbols. What are these three Iconic Symbols?

A lot of these Hall of Famers have broken records throughout their career – the best of the best. Name the year each of these Record-Breaking Hall of Famers were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame:

11. Emmitt Smith: Career Rushing Yards (18,355) _____
12. Jerry Rice: Career Receiving Touchdowns (197) _____
13. Bruce Smith: Career Sacks (200) _____
14. Paul Krause: Career Interceptions (81) _____
