Instructions:

Please use the following lesson to help prepare your students for a more meaningful and interactive educational experience.

Subject: Language Arts

Lesson Title: Women in the NFL

Goals/Objectives:

- Students will:
 - Research women affiliated with the NFL through the process of gathering and organizing information into a presentable format using the internet and the presentation provided by the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Women in the NFL.
 - Categorize the areas where women participate and analyze the possibilities for future growth in a particular area. They will support their findings by giving clear reasons based on evidence found.

Common Core Standards:

- Language Arts:
 - Reading Informational Text
 - Reading Foundational Skills
 - Writing
 - Speaking and Listening
 - Language

Methods/Procedures:

Prior to Program

- As a beginning activity, students will be asked to list the areas where women today have a presence in the NFL based on their present knowledge. They will list the categories and names of participants if they know them.

During the Program

- Students will watch the presentation and make a list of the women involved and the areas in which they participate.

After the Program

- Students will use the internet for research on one of the categories and then choose a woman who they wish to know more about. Valuable information can be found on these reputable sites: NFL.com and ProFootballHOF.com.

Materials:

- Access to computers
- Access to the internet
- Access to HOF website and presentation, Women in the NFL
- Notebooks for taking notes

Assessment:

Different Options

- Students will write a report on the chosen individual and present the information to the class in a written or visual presentation.
- Students will write a report or give a presentation on the NFL career for female participants most likely to grow in the near future, citing those involved presently. Support the findings with information found in the research.
- Students will all fill out the Women in the NFL Summary Sheet.
